NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE OF HEAD OFFICE ADDRESS: LAND BANK

Dear Valued Client / Stakeholder,

We are pleased to advise that the Land and Agricultural Development Bank of South Africa (Land Bank) has relocated its Head Office to new premises.

This relocation marks an important milestone in the Bank's continued organisational renewal and supports our commitment to serving South Africa's agricultural sector more effectively. By bringing our Head Office teams together in a single, purpose-designed workplace, we are strengthening collaboration, improving operational efficiency and creating an environment that better enables us to deliver on our mandate.

While our Head Office has moved, our commitment to providing responsive, professional service remains unchanged.

Our new Head Office physical address is:

148 Kelvin Drive
Magnolia Close
Woodmead
Sandton, 2080

Please note the following:

- Our postal address remains unchanged.
- Our Centurion Lakefield Office will remain operational and continue to serve clients as the Land Bank Gauteng Provincial Office until 30 April 2027, after which the Provincial Office will relocate to our Woodmead premises.
- All existing telephone numbers, email addresses and other contact details remain unchanged.

We appreciate your continued confidence and support as we continue building a stronger, more resilient Land Bank in support of South Africa's agricultural sector. We look forward to welcoming you to our new Head Office and to continuing our partnership in advancing sustainable and inclusive agricultural development.

Yours sincerely

Vonani Mabunda
Acting - Chief Banking Officer
